Description

Look Good and Ride Well with this little Posture Shoulder Brace

This brace is the most popular brace used by the horse riders worldwide.

- It will train your muscles
- It will make you look great riding
- You can wear it riding or around the stables or at work
- Promotes healthy upper back posture.

- It will draw your shoulders back into a square shoulder posture
- You will look great while you ride with the support.
- By placing the shoulders in the correct position the brain has to adapt to a new position and train it.
- This posture shoulder brace will stretch the front chest muscles while it is strengthening and supporting the back muscles.
- The balance between the front and back becomes equal so much quicker when this brace is worn.
- Headache pain and muscle pain control.
- Controls the forward shoulder posture
- Control that poking chin posture
- No one will know you have it on once your jacket goes over top
